D. M. Shively, President Western Association, Kansas City, Mo.: Commission will take same stand
Saturday as they did in New York.
Conditions will not be disturbed.
AUGUST HERMANN,
Secretary National Commission.

Kansas City, April 6 .- The above message was received by Dr. D. M. Shively, president of the Western asmessage was received by Dr. D. M. When I get to Louisville I will Shively, president of the Western association of baseball clubs, late Friday number of men signed up but day. Shively had wired Hermann ask-ing him whether or not the National commission would award the Topeka get them in shape for the opening of franchise to the Western association at the the commission's meeting in Cincinnati today. In the New York meeting referred to in Hermann's telegram the commission decided that it had nothing to do with the matter and recommended that the National board take up the matter. National board has stated that the board could do nothing in the case. Therefore Topeka will be in the Western association this season.

The fight between the Western league and the Western association for the possession of the Topeka baseball franchise is ended. Shively has won. Perhaps next year the Western league will be able to get the National agreement changed so that it will be possible for a minor league to draft possible for a minor league to draft a town from a league of lower class than the one making the draft. However, this season Topeka players will not get to play in the large cities. President O'Neill of the Western Batte league has no chance to get the club umpires who will officiate in the West-ern association this summer. They are E. A. Eckman and William Guthrie of Chicago; Java Verschure of Hol-land, Mich., and Mike Jacobs. The Chicago men were signed on the rec-ommendation of "Brick" Owens, the former American association umpire. Verschure was suggested by Vander-hill of the Joplin club. Jacobs um-

Several months Secretary ago Chivington, of the Louisville team, offered Cooley the managership of the Colonels, but Cooley has been holding Colonels, but Cooley has been holding off for some time on account of the prospects of getting the Topeka team into the Western league. His offer to go to Louisville this season must be accepted before tomorrow or it will no longer be open to him. If Topeka does not get into the Western league Cooley would be left out in the cold as he has several times made the statement that he would never manage another that he would never manage another been dragging along too long already and it is time I should be doing something. The Louisville management has made me a good offer and I will has made me a good offer and I will be able to get along with them in good shape. I have told Doc Shively that I would never manage another team in his league, and I am going to live up to my promise. Louisville has very kindly decided to wait until tomorrow for an answer to their offer and in view of the unsettled state of affairs I feel that I ought to go. I will still retain my interests in the local team and will do everything I can to help the team along. I always liked Topeka and have strived to do everything I could to bring a winning team Topeka and have strived to do every-thing I could to bring a winning team to the town and in leaving now, I belleve I am leaving Topeka one of the best and fastest teams in the west.
